2010 Advanced Compliance School

For Experienced Compliance and Risk Management Professionals

WHY SHOULD YOU ATTEND? _____

The Compliance Officer's job is NOT getting any easier. In fact, there are days when it feels like the sky is falling. Yet as the compliance officer, you must stay on top of new developments and keep your bank's staff up to date. Anything less leaves your bank vulnerable to more scrutiny in a compliance examination and puts the bank's reputation on the line. The Advanced Compliance School is your opportunity to learn, to clarify, to move beyond the basics. You will confirm your understanding of some issues and improve your understanding of others.

WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM ATTENDING? _____

This school is designed for compliance professionals who are looking for information beyond the basics. Operations/compliance managers, lenders, branch managers, presidents/CEO's, bank directors, legal counsel and other individuals responsible for compliance management within their organization will benefit from this school.

PREREQUISITE _____

Recommended for individuals with at least two years of banking experience, as well as compliance responsibilities, and/or those who have attended a basic compliance school.

8:30 to 9:00 a.m.—REGISTRATION & BREAKFAST

9:00 to 9:30 a.m.—FACILITATORS GRAB BAG

The facilitators will lead off with some general thoughts and compliance observations, and then give you a chance to discuss any compliance issue on your mind, that is not already on the agenda.

9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.—REGULATORY UPDATE INCLUDING DEPOSIT, ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND CREDIT-RELATED REGULATIONS

The Regulatory Update will include a “pulse check” on issues already implemented and will bring you up to speed on issues pending, including:

- ◆ Revised check processing regions under Expedited Funds Availability Act / Regulation CC
- ◆ New “opt-in” rules for payment of overdrafts under Electronic Fund Transfers Act / Regulation E
- ◆ Revised privacy notices under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act
- ◆ Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act (UIGEA) implementation

- ◆ Recap of the changes to the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA)
- ◆ Registration of loan officers under the Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing (SAFE Act)

ADJOURN for those attending Day One Facilitators Grab Bag and Regulatory Update ONLY

3:00 to 4:00 p.m.—CASE STUDY INTRODUCTION AND BREAKOUT

You are certain that your bank will be contacted shortly regarding its regular compliance examination. Key question: Is the bank ready? In this case study, you will team up with your peers to take a hard look at your compliance program, your risk management, and to identify exam readiness activities.

DAY TWO (Thursday, May 6, 2010) - PRACTICAL MATTERS

8:30 to 9:00 a.m.—BREAKFAST

9:00 to 10:00 a.m.—CASE STUDY PRESENTATIONS

10:00 a.m. to noon—YOUR COMPLIANCE PROGRAM AND THE REGULATORY COMPLIANCE EXAMINATION

All your hard work comes under the scrutiny of regulatory examiners approximately every three years; and you quickly learn whether your compliance risk management program is everything you think it is. In this session, we’ll pull together the pieces - risk management program and examination management.

1:00 to 3:00 p.m.—PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS

New and amended rules always mean new forms, disclosures, and notices. In this session, we will choose one deposit-side issue and one lending-side issue to study in depth.

3:00 to 4:00 p.m.—CASE STUDY BREAKOUT

Today you will work with your peers on practical issues. We’ll provide some problems, but feel free to bring your own examples - sample periodic statements; sample GFEs and HUD-1s; sample disclosures; and others.

DAY THREE (Friday, May 7, 2010) - PRACTICAL MATTERS Continues

8:30 to 9:00 a.m.—BREAKFAST

9:00 to 9:45 a.m.—CASE STUDY PRESENTATIONS

Noon—CERTIFICATES AWARDED & ADJOURN
